

Bachelorette Party Pledge

I, _____ accept membership into the Bachelorette Party Sisterhood.

As a member I promise to:

Honour the bride-to-be by getting her a cocktail of her choice

I agree not to gossip, bicker or sulk. Instead I will giggle & flirt

I will accept free drinks, phone numbers and silly conversation from hunky strangers

I have the phone number of a cab or have arranged for a designated driver

I will dance, drink, dance and then repeat

I will participate in any or all of the following: karaoke, sing-alongs & dancing to "Raining Men"

Remember that all calories consumed during a bachelorette do not count & will be danced off

I agree to drink and drink some more until complete inebriation has been achieved

I will not take any incriminating photographs

I will not call my husband, boyfriend or partner during the festivities

Most importantly, I agree to keep the contents of the bachelorette party secret from any husbands, boyfriends or potential snitches. If anyone asks we drank wine and discussed shoes
